COMP3700 –Introduction to Web Computing – Spring2024
Project - Part I: Project Proposal (Due Date: Thurs 29/11/2022)

- Project Requirements: Submit a short report which contains the following information:
    1. Team Members – three students per project (only one project can have two students per gender).
    2. A cover page with name of your website tittle and list of members.
    3. Auto-generated table of content as second page (using references tab in MS Word).
    4. Website targeted audience/stakeholders (different types of users for your website). You need to conduct interviews with at least two actual stakeholders to collect the project requirements and specifications.
    5. The main objectives for your Website: specify the need for your website (4-6 objectives).
    6. References to similar websites available on the web with brief discussions about their structures.

#	Item	Max Points	Earned Points	Feedback
1	Cover Page and automatically table of contents.	1.5
2	Meeting with the actual audience/stakeholders	1
3	Clarity of the website's objectives	1.5
4	Information about similar websites with references	1.5
5	Clarity of the website's functionalities and structure	1.5

6	Sufficiency and relevance of the website's content description	1.5
7	Explanation and presenting your website logo design.	1.5

7. Website contents: description about content each page includes and what how this page serve the main objective of your website. You need use at least 5 pages including "index", "about us" an "contact us" pages.

8. Website Structure: specify the site-map and main 3-5 features/functionalities in your website.

9. Design your own website logo to represent your website and explain the logo design and how it is relevant to your website topic.

10. Database: specify which type of data needs to be maintained in your website and exchanged with different types of users. You may provide tables for sample data that can be used in your website.

11. Web hosting: discuss the available web hosting options and justify why you have chosen a specific webhosting. The Web hosting needs to support XHTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP and MySQL.

12. Google sites Web site: You need to design a google site website with at least five web pages and appropriate contents and design.

13. Discuss the two impacts of your website on individuals and society. In addition, you need to list at least three ethical and professional issues related to your website and discuss how to handle them.

Grading Table

8	Description about the Website Data	2
9	Web hosting: available and chosen web hosting with justifications	2
10	TWO Impact issues and THREE ethical and professional issues	2
11	Create a prototype for your website using Google sites	4
	Total	20	0

Submission: (a) Only one member of the team should submit

(b) Submit the project report (MS word) and a list for your Google site Web site.